

Not In Our Valley

Hate-based Extremists Have a Long History in the Flathead.

Now, they have a candidate. His name is Derek Skees, and here's what you need to know...

Racism

Skees displays the confederate flag in public, the symbol of racism. He recently enraged Montana Veterans by wearing the flag on his jacket at the Whitefish Memorial Day parade. He later defended his actions in an e-mail, in which he blamed the North for the Civil War.

Notorious anti-Semite Red Beckman defends Hitler's extermination of 6 million Jews

Campaign Ties to Anti-Semitic writer

Mr. Skees' campaign treasurer recently funded a speaking forum at which Red Beckman, the notorious anti-Semite, addressed the crowd. Of the six million people murdered by the Nazis, Beckman has said: "Was not that God's judgment upon people for their worship of Satan? The true and almighty God used the Nazis to perform judgment upon the evil antichrist religion."

Violent Anti-Government Imagery

Skees appears at rallies with people in Guy Fawkes masks. Fawkes was a terrorist who tried to assassinate the entire British Parliament in 1605 and overthrow the government, and who said "A desperate disease requires a dangerous remedy."
